THE CHARGES AGAINST MR. THOMPSON, MAYOR EDSON DECIDES THAT THE EVIDENCE IS

NOT SUFFICIENT TO SUSTAIN THEM. Mayor Edson has sent to the Coancil of Reform his answer to the charges against Hubert O. Thompson, Commissioner of Public Works. He found that the charges are mainly based on questions of law, and therefore submitted them to the Coursel to the Corporation as well as the Centreller. Corporation Counsel Andrews, after reviewing the testimony submitted sens.

the charges are mainly massed on the Compact to the Corporation as well as the Controller. Corporation Compact Addrews, after requesting the testimony submitted says:

After the most careful consideration of the whole matter, I am of the opinion that upon the admitted leave, the Commissioner does not stand charged with any act which is a violation of law, and that in view of the explanations given by bitm as to the main charged with any act which is a violation of law, and that in view of the explanations for the property of the controller Campbell says that in reference to the repairs of severs it is not practicable to perform this work by contract on account of the incossibility of estimating correctly the amount and kind of the work to be done. The best way is to give it be some responsible and experienced contractor without competition. The same method should be followed for the repair and replacement of pavements over sewer and water-pipe connections. The coniroller adds that this work was formerly dose by plumbers, and the pavements were left in one by plumbers, and the pavements were left in which is a considered to make a consideration of the commissioner of Public Works to replace the pavements at the expense of the plumbers. This work he says, cannot well be done by public contract, and as the ordinary day's work is very supensive, it was desumed best to give it to a contractor of experience. It would have multiplied youchers and warrants to make return for every small job of $5 or $10, and it was arranged with the then Controller that several jobs should be returned in one certificate, not to exceed in the aggregate $1,000. There does not seem to be any reason for his limit, as each opening was considered one job. For the purchase of hydrants, stop-cocks, boxes, mas-hole covers and other iron work the Controller is of the opinion that the Commissioner of Public Works has given a very fair explanation. The work has generally to be done in jobs too small for public advertisement. When smilling seem the

THE RUNNING OF CARS IN WATER-STREET. People crossing Fulton Ferry for the last two days have been surprised to see street cars belonging to the Second Avenue Line standing near the ferry entrance in Fulton-st. A reporter of The Tribune met Inspector Ronan of that line yesterday and asked him why the company had begun to run its ears in Fulton-st. He said it was to take some of the passengers to and from the ferry instead of leaving them at Peck-sip, adding: "We run a car every fifteen or twenty manutes now, but soon there will be a regular time-table. The cars were only put on yesterday. There was an old track, unused for some time, lying in Fulton and Water sts., Peck-slip and New-Bowery, and we run our cars over it, meeting our regular route at Chatham Square. There was a little opposition to our running our cars through Water-st., but not much. It is wider than some of the other streets on our route."

Water-st., but not much. It is wider than some of the other streets on our route."

James Coolidge, of No. 241 Water-st., gave a different version regarding the starting of the ears through Water-st. "The tracks in this street," he said, "have been unused for about four years. In fact, two rails had been taken up and the paving-stones had been replaced. The rails were put in place again on i hursday night, but not until an indictment had been found against the Bleecker Street Line by the Grand Jury for maintaining a nuisance. Some of us thought that it was possible to have the rails taken up, as they were not used and were a great annoyance to the business men who have stores in the street and those who send their teams through it. Petitions signed by forty-five owners and occupants of stores in Water-st. and by twenty-six leading firms near it, and by seventy-six owners and drivers of teams, were sent to the District-Attorney, and the indicament sent to the District-Attorney, and the indictment secured on Thursday will be filed on Monday. The street is narrow and street cars ought not to run in it, and to all appearances the Bleecker-st. line, wishing to bold its franchise and fearing the result of the indictment, has leased its part of the road to the Second Avenue Line, and hired the company to drive its cars over it."

REAL ESTATE QUIET BUT FIRM.

REAL ESTATE QUIET BUT FIRM.

Another week bassed with the real estate market characterized by extreme dulness. No important auction sales were made, and the private transactions were neither numerous nor significant as regards prices. It any feature could be selected in so stagnant a market, it might be that of increased slowness in sales of country property in the vicinity of the city. A slightly increased activity was noted in building operations, probably because of the recent easiness in the prices of building materials. But as the market for these articles has recovered a firmer tone, dealers do not look for any considerable estimates to new construction because of a prospective chapening of materials for builders. West Side property continues to bring low prices when forced upon the market. The great conservator of the real estate market, however, is the confidence in the future which possesses most owners and dealers. A dull season appears to be inevitable, but prices fail to show any weakness on account of the general suspension of operations.

Four lots in Englithethest, east of Fifth-ave, have been sold for $100,000 to C. N. & N. A. Williams, who intend to improve the property immediately. Four lots in Seventy-first-st, west of Eighth-ave, have been sold for $40,000 by R. C. Ferguson to Anderson Fowler. In seventy-second-st, west of Second-ave, five lots have been hought for $50,000 by James Fettrech from Morris Steinhardt. No. 38 East Severty-second-st. has been sold for $50,000 to Lndwig Roth. The St. Albans apartment house, Nos. 349 and 351 West Fifty-eighth-st. has passed from Hugh Blesson to R. W. Martin for $135,000. The Record and Guide says that the Ligathouse Farm, an extensive piece of property mear Now-Borp, Staten Island, has been bought from J. C. Seguine for $25,000 by a Catholic society, which intends to found an educa ional institution. An investment of $150,000 is expected to be made there.

SMITH'S FUTILE EFFORIS FOR RELEASE.

Policeman John W. Smith, who shot and killed Patrick Reagan last Sunday, was taken yesterday before Justice Donohue in the Supreme Court. Chambers, on a writ of habeas corpus, with a view of retting him released on bail. Justice Donohue said the application should be made in the first instance to a police magistrate, and dismissed the writ. Thereupon he was taken before Justice White, of the Tombs Police Court, who admitted him to bail in the sam of $5,000, pending an examination to be held next week. Subsequently Smith was again brought to the Tombs Police Court, where Justice Power was presiden He was recompanied by Superintendent Walling, and Sergeant McCullough of the Twenty-eighth Precinct. The former offered himself as bondsman for the policeman, whereupon Clerk McCabe pointed out to him a section of the statute which prohibits police or prison officials from becoming surely for a prisoner. The superintendent accordingly withdrew, and afterward James Sullivan, a liquer dealer, who, becedes other city property, is owner of No. 82 Centre-st., justified as surety. When the clerk was about to make out the bail bond Mr. Sullivan inquired as to the nature of the case, and on being informed of the killing of Reagan by Smith, declined to go on the bend. The policeman is still in the Tombs Prison. SMITH'S FUTILE EFFORTS FOR RELEASE.

AN IMPUDENT SWINDLER ARRESTED.

Detective James K. Price, of the Twenty-ninth Precinct, brought to the bar of the Jefferson Market Police Court resterday afternoon a tail, well-dressed yeing fellow named Ferdinand A. Witte, who described himself as being twenty-three years of age and a resident of Cincipnati. When asked his business, he said he was interested in banking and brokerage enterprises. About three months ago, Henry Sottong, sixty-six years of age, living at No. 434 East Fifth-st., reported that on or about May 10, 1882, Write called on him and produced several letters of introduction which he said he had received from friends and relatives of Mr. Sottong's in Cincinnati. The two men became intimate, and Witte informed Mr. Sottong that he had about $50,000 deposited in the Stuyceant Safe Deposit Company, at Third-ave, and Seventh-st. In proof of this assertion he displayed a receipt for certain properties cared for by the company. He then told Settong that he had to go to Washington to have certain bonds which were in his grand-AN IMPUDENT SWINDLER ARRESTED.

mother's name transferred to himself; that he was short of ready money and would like to borrow some, Mr. Sottong agreed to go with him to Washington and they set out together. Witte carried with him a tin box which he said contained the bonds. The business was not adjusted in Washington, and under one pretext and another Witte induced his companion to visit several other cities with him. Mr. Sottong paid all the expenses and gave Witte besides from time to time about $5,000, which the latter promised to refund on their return to this city.

latter promised to refund on their return to this city.

Some time after their arrival Mr. Sottong threatened Witte with arrest unless he settled. Witte seemed surprised at this and was apparently so affected that he induced Mr. Sottong to lend him $500 more, and in his possession were found a lot of worthless bonds, some bearing the name: "Coney Island Gas Light Company of Granesend, L. I." Justice Gardner held Witte in $5,000 bail on Sottone's complaint and in $500 on the charge of Parker. Detective Price said that Witte's windling operations have been very extensive, that he has defrauded a tailor named Dunbar, at No. 187 Broadway, out of $60 and the Rey. Father Schwindler, of the Fortyninth Street Catholic church, out of $5,000.

THE GILLS AND THE WOODHALLS.

THE GILLS AND THE WOODHALLS.

At 2 o'clock yesterday William Gill and his wife, accompanied by a large number of other Gills, went to the Yorkville Poince Court to answer to the charges preferred against them by the Woodhall sisters and to press their own complaints. In place of the two sisters, however, there was only a letter from their counsel addressed to Justice Herrman, stating that Alice and Harriet Woodhall and Ann Gibson had concluded to institute proceedings in another tribunal, and therefore would not appear in the Police Court. The effect of this epistle on Justice Herrman was startling. After reading it he entered the examination room, where the Gill family were gathered together, and announcing that no examination would be held, read the letter aloud. He then made some remarks on the course pursued by Judge Donohue in reducing the bail from $1,000 to $300 without consulting him. He had made no objection, he said, through their counsel, and the bail had been found at once; yet they had served him with a writ of habeas corpus and certiorari. "If, as seems likely, they have left the country, the city will have lost $1,400," said he, "and as I do not consider it right to allow the time of the Court to be wasted in this fashion I must set down a further examination for Wednesday next, at which I shall expect Mr. and Mrs. Gill to be present." Assent to this course was cheerfully given by the Gills' counsel.

Welliam Gill stated last evening to a Tribunar reporter that he would willingly allow him to see the old man, but the latter had already cone to bed. "You have no idea how feeble he is," said he. "We have to undress him and put him to bed like a child. He knows us, of course, but his memory has gone entirely. He never refers to the Woodhalls by name, and we never mention their names to him, as we want him to forget them just as soon as possible. He is perfectly happy and contented and does not fret or worry over anything. We have taken rooms for him down town within essy reach of the court, so that

AN ABDUCTED CHILD RECOVERED.

Oscar Czarra, of No. 218 East Thirty-fourth-st., went to Police Headquariers yesterday to seek information about his daughter, nine years old, who disappeared on Thursday after she had been sent on an errand to Third-ave. Superintendent Walling had received a dispatch to the effect that the girl had been taken to Locust Valley, L. L. by an older riri and deserted there. Mr. Czarra went to Locust Valley and found his little girl all right. She saud that when she went to Third-ave, a girl about fitteen years old asked her if she didn't want to go to the country. They crossed the Thirty-fourth Street Ferry and took the cars there. The older girl left the train just before they reached Locust Valley, and the little one made the rest of the try alone. She was found in the road about 6 o'clock Thursday evening by a Mrs. Coons and cared for, Mrs. Coons prevailed on Mr. Czarra to let the girl stay with her until Tuesday.

Ex-Congressman A. A. Hardenbergh, of Jersey City, has been appointed guardian of the infant daughter of the late Charles Sisson, who was the son of the late Charles G. Sisson. He was very dissipated, and when his father died he left the estate in such condition that Charles, who was a hard drinker, could not squander it. About two years before his death Charles married a poor girl, whose beauty had taken his fancy, but they hyed together only a short time. They had one child, a daughter, and at the time of Sisson's death a suit for divorce was pending. Sisson's relatives were extremely auxions to get possesson of the child, and her mother as earnestly resisted their efforts in that direction.

NEWARK.

Henry Sharpe Lammerson and Bernard Smith are under arrest on a charge made by Mrs. Eliza Smith, the wife of Bernard Smith, of consbiracy. Smith has been suing for a divorce in the New-Jersey courts. The wife charges that on Thanksaying Day Lammerson decoyed her to a hotel at Irvington, near Newark, by representing that he had an important statement to make in relation to the suit brought by her husband; that he expressed sympathy for her and induced her on the plea of privacy to go to a private room to hear his statement. There her husband appeared and said "At last I've caught you." She further charges that Lammerson registered their names as Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sharpe without her knowledge, and that he has since accessed sed to be returned as mor of more registered their names as Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sharpe without her knowledge, and that he has since acknowledged to her that he received a sum of money from her husband for his services. Miss Sarah Ryan, who lives with her parents at No. 88 Wilseyst. received serious tojuries by a fall from a window early yesterday morning. She had been up until midnight attending to some household-duties, her mother being ill, and retired to her room on the third floor. Her bed was drawn close to the trent window. An hour after she had retired her brother heard a crashing noise and looking out his bedroom window saw the form of his sister lying on the sidewalk twenty-five feet below. She was hadly out and bruised about the head and injured internally.

AMARVELLOUS STORY

FROM THE SON: "28 Codar St. New York, Oct, 28, 1882. "Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. Help been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the increased letter vili tell you what a marvellous effect the humor for at least ten years, but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, if gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now there are few men of his ago whe enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty per Yours truly,

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessed and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used in regularly since that time. My condition began to improves once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well is every respect—being now able to do a good day's world although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrough such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA—Glove, Ve. Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully,
